Progress of Reform-New Lights. Some weeks ago the Governor of Massachu setts disbanded all the military companies com posed of foreigners, and directed tha return of their arms to the anthorities. Since then, Sena tor Cooper, of Ponnsylvania, has taken the alarm in his place in the Senate, and deprecuted the appearance of military companies with hard

We expect soon to hear of some patriotic sounding the tocsin against Godey's Lady's Book or the Milror of Fashion. These London and Parisian styles for the different seasone ought to be very scandalous; they are, perhaps, dangerous in these days of our weak ness. Heretofore we have always had German companies, Irish companies, and Scotch compa nies, dressed according to their own taste, and pobody was scared. These companies have gone to the bloody field, and lought as bravely for their adopted country as the native, and neve before have these gho tly horrors still cted our people. Our country must be assumed to be very weak and corrupt, and not robus, as in former times. We begin to quake with apprebension at foreign costume, and shudder at the "brogue and the scceat." Well, perhaps we are weak and unreliable. Protestautism, It seems, can't stand the fire. Something extra must be done just now. The civil power, at the ballot box, must be invoked to juterpose in time: otherwise that I east with seven heads and ten borns will gobble up our liberty, belore we

Yesterday, New York was to elect a Senator. Great excitement, at Albany, Seward and anti-Seward. We shall probably learn the assult before we go to press. He will be elected, or no one, as the opposition do n't propose to unite on any one. Their union is impossible.

The fusion Legislatures of the other States except Massachusetts, are not likely to succeed in any elections this year. Iowa has elected Senator by a mase meeting; Illinois, Indiana Michigan, and Missouri, are tied up, and likely to remain in that condition. On the 23d, the question of Loing into an election comes up in ndianapolis. The subject may be indefinitely postponed! There are two whigs prominent for the office of Senator; one a know notbling, Mr. Orth, the other an old line whig, Marchall, of Madison. They are waiting and hoping; but there is a party of fusionists not eac.ly reconcilable to either of them, and the chance of an election at a foint session of the we house is
